Professional experience

1978-92 Research associate at the department of Tumor Biology, Karolinska Institute 1992-97 Research fellow of the Swedish Cancer Society
1997 - Professor of Virology, Karolinska Institutet

Research

My research is dealing with the immunoregulation of persistent viral infections with particular focus on tumor viruses including Epstein-Barr virus, Kaposi sarcoma virus and hepatitis C virus. Our main efforts are devoted to the study of molecular mechanisms of viral pathogenesis and dissection of viral strategies of immunoescape.
